

HFCComponents started in 2010 as a full daughter company of Homo Faber.

HFC can offer a range of products used in the production and repair of heat treatment installations like:

Graphite insulation boards, carbon fiber composites (CFC), machined graphite parts etc.

HFC has started to produce hardness reference blocks used in any metallurgical laboratory and in the production of heat treatment plants.